

ERFP Rules for Reimbursement of Costs

1. Reimbursement Claim

Any request for reimbursement must be agreed with the ERFP Secretariat. In some specific cases (see hereafter) the agreement needs to be given before the occurrence of the event. Participants to, and organisers of, ERFP meetings are entitled to reimbursement of costs only if the ERFP Secretariat gave its clearance.

To do so, a scanned copy of the reimbursement claim (including the originals of tickets, invoices, boarding pass, hotel bills, etc). has to be sent to the ERFP Secretariat at the email address: Lauriane.Llareus@idele.fr

After approval by the ERFP Secretariat, the reimbursement claim including the originals of tickets, boarding pass, invoices, hotel bills, etc. must be sent to the ERFP Secretariat, by post (original documents) and/or electronic version (electronic tickets, invoices...), at the address:

Lauriane LLAREUS

ERFP Secretariat

149 rue de Bercy

75012 PARIS

FRANCE (slow mail) and/ or by email at Lauriane.Llareus@idele.fr

The reimbursement will be made only if air / train / bus tickets, boarding pass, receipts and invoices are provided.

Expenses other than those specified in these ERFP rules will not be reimbursed.

2. Reimbursement in Assembly, Steering Committee, Working Groups, Task Forces and Ad hoc actions

Major expenses other than travel reimbursements need the approval by the Chairs or Project Coordinators within the agreed budget before the approval by the Secretariat to be reimbursed.

At the request of a chair or coordinator, the Steering Committee may decide to spend more funds in a particular budget line up to a limit of 25% of this budget line, within the overall ERFP budget as approved by the Assembly.

All other meeting costs such as rental of meeting room, printouts, etc. should generally be paid in advance by the organisers and will be reimbursed by ERFP, with the exception, as indicated in article 4, of invoices that may be settled directly with the contractor by the secretariat. If the reimbursement of the organisers implies paying VAT a second time, direct payment by the secretariat will be preferred.

For meetings organized by ERFP, one meal per full meeting day might be covered by ERFP budget (or max. 25 € spent on meals per full meeting day/per person) (excluding alcoholic drinks) and one technical visit per meeting can be supported.

According to the Terms of Reference the following costs are eligible for refund:

- For the ERFP Steering Committee: travel costs incl. accommodation for SC members only.
- For the ERFP Working Groups: travel costs incl. accommodation for WG members only and invited experts (or for one representative of the WG member confirmed by the respective NC). Publication of reports, consumables and salaries are not considered as an eligible expense.
- For the ERFP Task Forces: travel costs incl. accommodation for TF members and invited experts only (or for one representative of the TF member confirmed by the respective NC) and meeting costs as well as scientific articles.

The reimbursement for attending the General Assembly, Steering Committee, Working Groups, Task Forces or Ad hoc actions meetings cannot exceed € 950 per person per meeting. Visa cost will be reimbursed additionally on demand.

3. Participation at ERFP Assembly

ERFP will support the participation of National Coordinators at the ERFP Assembly of the country categories A, B, C and D upon their request. Costs will be reimbursed according to the rules laid down here against reimbursement claim and original receipts only. It cannot exceed € 950 per person per meeting.

The National Coordinator may be accompanied to the ERFP Assembly by technical advisors. These advisors will participate at their own expenses.

Invited speakers, WG chairmen (if not NCs), EAAP and FAO correspondent may have their travel costs reimbursed on demand. In this case, it cannot exceed € 950 per person per meeting unless specifically granted by the SC for overseas speakers.

4. Advance Payment

ERFP will not carry out advance payments to individuals.

Meeting costs occurring in connection with the respective ERFP venue can be paid in advance, however. EAAP may settle the invoices directly with the contractor. In this case the invoice must show the net amount plus % VAT and the total sum and has to be addressed to the following EAAP address:

EAAP – European Federation of Animal Science
ERFP Secretariat
Via G. Tomassetti 3 A/1
00161 Rome
Italy

The invoice needs to indicate the event (name of the venue for which the money is used). A scanned copy or an electronic copy of the invoice must be sent to the ERFP Secretariat for the approval of the payment.

5. Daily Allowances

ERFP will not pay daily allowances or per diems.

6. Travel Expenses
